

EA Band Rules of Conduct for In-Stands – 2010

- Students will respond to a request from a chaperone as if it were coming from Mr. Rosco.
- Students will sit in their section, play on own instrument, stand and play at appropriate times only.
- Students will be permitted to take jackets off in the stands. Students must wear show shirt (2010 shirt) underneath uniform or they must keep jacket on.
- No electronic devices in the stands. If they are seen being used, they will be taken and given back at the end of the night. No exceptions.
- No food or drink in the stands other than items provided by EABPA or any other band organization. It will be taken from you.
- Students must be accompanied by a chaperone when going to use the restroom.
- Students must wait until the 2nd half of the game to use the restroom at any Home Game unless it is an extreme emergency. Please go before we march down.
- Friends of students are not to “visit” during games. They will be asked to move along.
- At home games, seniors will go and meet the other band at the 4th quarter. They will be accompanied by Mr. Rosco, ALL RULES STILL APPLY.
- Students must remember that while you are in uniform, you are representing our school, and organization.
